

01. 거론(하다)

Having been in politics for over 30 years, he was mentioned as a candidate for president this time.

02. 건네다

A day before the election, the candidates shook hands with the residents one by one and offered words of greetings.

03. 검증(하다)

A president should be someone who has been proven to have the capabilities to lead the country.

04. 견해

Attention is being paid to the effects that the two candidates' different political opinions could have on the results of the election.

05. 공약(하다)

When voting, you must look carefully at the promises the candidates have offered.

06. 공정(하다)

Elections must be conducted cleanly and fairly.

07. 나서다

The candidate for the election for the National Assembly set out to the streets and asked citizens for their support.

08. 답변(하다)

The candidate for the presidential election answered the reporters' questions.

09. 당당하다

He has no political experience but is receiving a lot of popularity from the people for his confidence befitting the younger generation.

10. 당부(하다)

The president requested the cooperation of the people so that the election could proceed fairly.

11. 당선(하다)

I ran as a candidate in the election for my school's student president but I wasn't elected.

12. 동원(하다)

Lately, campaign activities that are mobilized with dances and songs are decreasing and most candidates employ quiet campaign activities.

13. 명예

The National Assembly member received a punishment for the rigged election and lost all the honor that he had accrued.

14. 사전 ☆

An early voting [voting in advance] system was created for citizens who cannot vote the day of an election.

15. 선거(하다)

Citizens must actively participate in elections in order for their diverse opinions to be reflected.

16. 선언(하다)

He officially announced through the media that he would be running in the election for the National Assembly.

17. 악수(하다)

The candidates running for the mayoral election shared a handshake before the debate.

18. 앞장서다

As a candidate running in this election, he's a figure leading the way in the improvement of welfare for the disabled.

19. 역설(하다)

No matter how much the importance of the election was emphasized, the voter turnout did not rise.

20. 운동(하다)

The candidates campaigned for the election by making various pledges.

21. 유리(하다) ☆

This candidate has a high approval rating among the youth and it appears she'll see advantageous results in the election.

22. 의무

Because Korea doesn't have compulsory [obligatory] voting, decisions depend on the choices of the citizens.

23. 입장 ☆

At the debate, the candidates each revealed their stance on population policy.

24. 전략 ☆

The reason for the defeat in this election was the failure of the campaign strategy.

25. 정치 ☆

An election is a choice by vote of a person who will participate in politics in the people's stead.

26. 지지(하다) ☆

Through an election, the people support and choose a candidate who will reflect their own opinions.

27. 청하다

The president sought a handshake from the assembly representative who attended the meeting.

28. -층

This candidate is receiving high approval from the younger generation for a welfare pledge related to housing support.

29. 투표(하다)

A president is chosen through a vote by the people.

30. 화제 ☆

This presidential election became the talk of the town for the all-time high voter turnout.

31. 후보

A total of five people ran as candidates in the presidential election.
