

01. 고개를 숙이다

The car company bowed its head to the people as it admitted there was a mechanical issue behind the accident.

Used when admitting a mistake or when embarrassed.

02. 귀가 얇다

My brother is easily swayed so he keeps changing his mind at his friends' words.

Used when you change your mind easily based on what others say.

03. 귀를 기울이다

My teacher lends an ear to the voice of each and every student.

Used when listening well to others.

04. 귓등으로 듣다

I turned a deaf ear to the words of my mother who told me to bring my things, and couldn't study because I didn't bring my books to school.

Used when not listening well to others.

05. 낯을 가리다

The baby was shy so even when someone he met for the first time said he was cute, he cried a lot.

Used when you don't like to deal with people you aren't close with or people you're meeting for the first time.

06. 눈 감아 주다

There was a scribble on the cover of the book, but it looked like a child had done it, so I turned a blind eye.

Used when acting like you didn't see or don't know about someone else's mistake.

07. 눈길을 끌다

The shop's Christmas decorations were done up prettily so it caught the eye of people passing by.

Used when getting a lot of people's attention.

08. 눈물이 핑 돌다

When I arrived at the airport after finishing my study abroad, I saw my parents who had come out to meet me and tears sprang to my eyes.

Used when tears well up.

09. 눈살을 찌푸리다

I frown when I see people smoking while walking down the street.

Used when seeing an action you don't like or hearing something you don't like.

10. 눈앞이 캄캄하다

I failed to get a job and felt hopeless about what to do in the future.

Used when something bad happens and you don't know what to do.

11. 눈에 들다

When I came home after spending a few days busy with work, my messy house caught my eye.

Used when you like something or when something is visible.

12. 눈에 띄다

My friend was wearing red clothes and a blue hat so he stood out even from far away.

Used when something is clearly visible from among many other things.

13. 눈을 감다

The composer passed away at the age of 60.

Used when someone has died.

14. 눈치가 보이다

I went into a coffee shop for a moment because it was so cold out, but I felt self-conscious because I didn't order anything.

Used when observing other people's feelings and attitudes.

15. 눈치가 빠르다

My mother is perceptive so if my expression is even a little bit strange, she asks me if something's wrong.

Used when you quickly understand other people's feelings.

16. 머리를 맞대다

The employees on our team put our heads together all night and had a meeting to solve the new product's technical problem.

 Used when discussing something and having a meeting.

17. 몸에 배다

Since I was young, I've been used to the habit of being thrifty and saving money.

 Used when you repeat something often and have become very used to it.

18. 몸을 꼬다

My friend said she was sorry for getting mad yesterday, squirming as she apologized in a small voice.

 Used when embarrassed.

19. 발목을 잡다

The mistake that Manager Kim made at the office in the past is still haunting him, so he isn't being promoted.

 Used when interfering with someone else's actions or when unable to escape from something in the past.

20. 발을 빼다

When his child was born, he decided to wash his hands of bad deeds and live a good life from then on.

 Used when you finish something completely and won't do it.

21. 발이 넓다

My friend has a wide social circle, so there's nobody he doesn't know, not just at school but in the whole neighborhood.

 Used when having a lot of acquaintances, friends.

22. 발이 묶이다

The plane couldn't take off because of the typhoon that hit Jeju Island, so the passengers were stranded in the airport.

 Used when you can't move your body.

23. 손사래(를) 치다

I said to my dad that we should go to a concert and he waved dismissively at me and told me to go with a friend.

 Used when waving your hand to refuse something or to say no.

24. 손에 꼽히다

In the area around California in America, it rains so little that the days that it rains can be counted on one hand.

 Used when within a certain range or ranking.

25. 손에 잡히다

At the office, I got a call saying that my child was sick and I couldn't concentrate on my work.

 Used when feeling at ease and things are going well.

26. 손을 내밀다

My parents taught me that when I see someone in need, I should reach out a hand first.

 Used when helping.

27. 손을 떼다

Chairman Kim revealed that he would pull out of his work at the company and step down.

 Used when quitting something you used to do.

28. 이를 갈다

Our players, who unfortunately lost in the finals at the last tournament, gritted their teeth and trained in order to win this year's championship.

 Used when something makes you so mad that you make up your mind to do well in the future.

29. 입 밖에 내다

I told my friend a secret and she promised that she would never let it slip.

 Used when saying a thought or a fact.

30. 콧대가 높다

Snooty luxury brands never have discount events.

 Used when your self-confidence is high and you have an attitude of wanting to brag.