

01. 감각 ☆

Our eyes, nose, ears, skin, etc. are the organs in our bodies that are responsible for our senses.

BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE ▲

Our bodies' 5 major senses are called "오감 (the five senses)." Let's learn about all 5, including "미각 (sense of taste)," which frequently appears on exams.

- 오감 The 5 Senses
- ① 시각: Sense of sight
- ② 후각: Sense of smell
- ③ 청각: Sense of sound
- ④ 미각: Sense of taste
- ⑤ 촉각: Sense of touch

02. 근육

A person's facial expressions are made using the muscles in their face.

03. 기관² ☆

As there are no sensory organs in hair, we don't feel pain even if we cut it.

04. 뇌

Not only can walking exercise build up your physical strength, it also helps the health of your brain.

05. 닿다

Because blankets that we use every day touch our skin directly, they should always be clean.

06. 떨리다 ☆

The weather is so cold today that my body is shaking.

07. 미각 ☆

Taste is the most important sense to a chef.

08. 부위

The waist is the central part that divides our body into the upper and lower body.

09. 분비(하다)

When the weather is hot, our bodies secrete sweat.

10. 뼈

Athlete Kim crashed into another player during the game and suffered an injury, breaking a leg bone.

11. 세포

The cells that make up a person's body are so small that they're difficult to distinguish with one's eyes.

12. 소화(하다)

In order to digest well, you must slowly chew and eat your food.

13. 수명

As the birth rate decreases and the average lifespan gets longer, the elderly population has increased sharply.

14. 숨

People cannot breathe in water.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's learn idiomatic expressions related to the commonly used word "숨."

- 숨을 거두다: For a person to die
- 숨이 막히다: To be very frustrated
- 숨 쉴 새가 없다: To be so busy that you don't have time to breathe

15. 신경 ☆

My nerves were damaged in an accident so I have no sensation in my legs.

16. 신체 ☆

Player Park Geonwu, with his tall height and quick feet, is in good physical condition as an athlete.

17. 심장

When a person is nervous, their heart beats quicker than usual.

EXAM TIP ▲

"심장이 뛰다 (for one's heart to pound)" is an idiomatic expression that is often used to mean "to be nervous" or "to be excited."

- e.g.
- 나는 좋아하는 사람의 이름만 들어도 심장이 뛰다. My heart starts pounding just from hearing the name of the person I like.
 - 어제 면접을 보러 갔는데 얼마나 긴장을 했는지 아직도 심장이 뛰다. I went to a job interview yesterday and I was so nervous that my heart is still pounding.

18. 온몸

The heart sends blood to the whole body through its movement of muscles.

19. 욕구

Appetite, the desire to eat, is the most basic human desire.

20. 움직이다 ☆

People can move their bodies because they have bones and muscles.

21. 육체

After the industrial revolution, machines ended up doing the difficult physical labor that humans used to do.

22. 음성

The sound of speech made using a person's vocal organs is called a voice.

23. 인체

Fine dust is having negative impacts on daily life and the human body.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's learn vocabulary related to the "몸 (body)."

- 신체: Means "a person's body."
- 육체: Means "a person's physical body," not including mental aspects.
- 인체: An expression meaning "a person's body" that is mainly used when talking about a body in the field of science.

"몸" is used for both people and animals. On the other hand, "신체," "육체," and "인체" are only used for people. Additionally, "몸" can also refer to health, like in "몸이 약하다 (to have a weak constitution)."

24. 접촉(하다)

If you don't want to catch a cold, you shouldn't come into contact with people who have caught a cold.

25. 정신

If you do leisure activities, your mood improves and you can release stress, so it helps your mental health.

26. 체내

If there's a lack of moisture inside your body, your physical functions decrease and you easily get tired.

27. 체온

I thought I had a fever so I took my temperature.

28. 체형

I have a tall and thin body type.

29. 피부 ☆

If you do outdoor activities for a long time in the summer when the sunlight is strong, your skin can get red or darken and tan.

30. 호르몬

If you lack sleep in your adolescence, growth hormones cannot be secreted and you won't grow taller.

31. 호흡(하다)

When hiking, you sweat and your respiration speeds up.
