

01. 골치가 아프다

Recently, as the number of tourists in our town increases, problems that are headaches, such as noise and the disposal of waste, are coming up.

☞ Used when it's difficult to solve something.

02. 구미에 맞다

This food suits the tastes of Korean people, who enjoy eating spicy food.

☞ Used when something matches your taste.

03. 길을 열다

The government's scholarship support system opened the door to learning for students who had given up on going to school because they didn't have money for tuition.

☞ Used when finding a method or making preparations.

04. 꿈쩍(도) 안 하다

No matter how much people around him made noise, he didn't budge and just worked.

☞ Used when not affected by others at all.

05. 담을 쌓다

This novel is a story about a boy who cut himself off from the world because his life was difficult.

☞ Used when breaking off contact with someone, or when having absolutely no interest in and no connection with something.

06. 마음에 들다

I went to the department store to shop, but nothing struck my fancy so I didn't buy anything.

☞ Used when you heart or emotions consider something good.

07. 마음을 놓다

There's a lot of work at the office, so even though I'm on vacation, I can't put my mind at ease and rest.

☞ Used when you feel comfortable.

08. 마음을 먹다

In order to get into my dream school, I made up my mind to study hard starting today.

☞ Used when you've decided to do something.

09. 마음이 맞다

Since my coworker and I are not like-minded, it's difficult to work.

☞ Used when you and another person have the same thinking and get along well.

10. 몸살을 앓다

As daytime highs rose to 35 degrees, a majority of the regions of the country suffered from the heat.

☞ Used when experiencing pain because of something.

11. 문을 열다

Our club has opened its doors so that students who want to participate can join at any time.

☞ Used when starting a business, or when an organization accepts something openly without putting up walls.

12. 바가지를 쓰다

During the holiday period, hotels doubled their prices and ripped off tourists.

☞ Used when you suffer losses because you pay more than the actual fee or price.

13. 바람을 쐬다

I was studying when I got a headache so I went outside for a moment to get some fresh air.

☞ Used when you go outside or go somewhere in order to change your mood.

14. 발걸음을 맞추다

Recently, as the number of single-person households has increased, companies have also fallen into step with changing patterns of consumption.

☞ Used when you align your actions, emotions, etc. in the same direction as someone.

15. 비행기를 태우다

The actor Kim Gyuwon was embarrassed by the reporters' praise during an interview and said not to flatter him.

☹ Used when praising someone else.

16. 선을 긋다

Baseball player Park Geonwu drew a line, saying the rumors that he had been injured were false.

☹ Used when setting a limit or permitted range.

17. 신경을 쓰다

Since I'm working part-time these days, I don't have the free time to be concerned about studying.

☹ Used when paying close attention to a situation or thing.

18. 앞뒤를 가리지 않다

He has a personality where, if he gets angry, he throws caution to the wind, so he doesn't have many friends.

☹ Used when acting as you please without thinking carefully.

19. 앞뒤를 재다

When an opportunity arises, if you think too carefully or weigh the pros and cons, you might lose it.

☹ Used when you calculate your gains and losses when doing something.

20. 열을 올리다

Ahead of the election, the candidates got worked up in order to receive residents' support.

☹ Used when you get angry because you're worked up, or when you're really absorbed in something.

21. 자리를 잡다

My town is settled in the mountains, so the air is clean and the scenery is beautiful.

☹ Used when taking a seat, or when you find a place to work or live and stay there.

22. 장을 보다

There was nothing to eat in the fridge so I went grocery shopping at the supermarket.

☹ Used when buying or selling something at a market.

23. 줄을 잇다

This restaurant's food tastes good so customers are always lining up.

☹ Used when something continues without stopping.

24. 진땀을 흘리다

The singer sweated bullets on stage because the microphone broke during the concert.

☹ Used when you encounter something embarrassing or difficult and work very hard.

25. 짐을 싸다

When the company's operations became difficult, more than half the employees packed their bags.

☹ Used when completely quitting something you used to do, or when moving to a new place.

26. 태산 같다

Heavy rain was forecast for this weekend, so farmers are up to their ears in worries.

☹ Used when something is very big or when there's a lot of something.

27. 한 방 먹다

If you took him lightly because he's a young athlete, you might take a heavy blow.

☹ Used when hit hard one time, or when receiving a shock from another person.

28. 한술 더 뜨다

Not only did my friend not return the things he borrowed, what's more, he said he'd never borrowed them.

☹ Used when having already done something wrong, to do something even further.

29. 할 말을 잃다

When our team lost 10-0, the coach left the field at a loss for words.

☹ Used when unable to speak due to encountering something surprising or unexpected.