

01. 구조(하다) ☆

When a disaster or fire occurs, we have to rescue people as quickly as possible.

02. 당하다

I was crossing the street a few days ago when I suffered a traffic accident and was admitted to the hospital.

03. 도망

The criminal was fleeing to avoid the police when he fell over.

04. 드러나다

The criminal's guilt was revealed through the police's investigation.

05. 맞서다

Firefighters face danger and work hard to save the lives of others.

06. 방지(하다) ☆

Our company conducts safety training in order to prevent accidents that can occur during our work.

07. 부딪히다

I was crossing at the crosswalk when I was hit by a car that ran through, ignoring the light.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's take a look at two confusing words: “부딪히다” and “부딪치다.”

- 부딪히다: A passive expression of the basic vocabulary word “부딪다.”

e.g. 서 있던 아이가 지나가는 사람에게 부딪혀 넘어졌다. The child who was standing was bumped into by a person passing by and fell over. (Fell over because they were hit by a person passing by.)

- 부딪치다: An emphasized form of “부딪다.”

e.g. 핸드폰을 보면서 걷다가 출입문에 머리를 부딪쳤다. I was walking while looking at my cell phone and bumped my head against the door. (The person bumped against the door themselves.)

08. 비상

When a fire breaks out, you should leave the building via the emergency stairs.

09. 사건

In order to identify the criminal, the police investigated the scene of the incident.

10. 생존(하다)

Firefighters safely rescued 10 survivors from the scene of the blaze.

11. 소방

All buildings must be equipped with firefighting facilities in preparation for when a fire occurs.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's look at some vocabulary related to “소방 (firefighting).”

- 소방관 Firefighter:
The precise title is “소방 공무원 (firefighting officer),” which refers to a person who has the job of helping when an emergency like a disaster or a fire occurs.
- 소방복 Firefighting uniform:
Refers to the clothes worn by firefighters when putting out fires.
- 소방서 Fire department:
An organization that does work related to firefighting.
- 소방차 Fire truck:
Refers to a special car that is equipped with firefighting equipment.

12. 올리다

When the fire siren rang, all of the people inside of the building rushed out.

13. 위급(하다)

It's said that the driver was badly injured in the traffic accident that occurred yesterday, and is in critical condition.

14. 위험(하다) ☆

Insurance is a system that was created in order to prepare for the danger of future accidents that cannot be predicted.

15. 유사(하다) ☆

In relation to the recent repeated fire accidents, the government said that it would make efforts so that similar accidents would not occur.

16. 음주

If you drink and drive, you will be punished even if an accident doesn't occur.

17. 인명

Although a large fire broke out in the department store, it was confirmed that no lives were lost.

18. 점검(하다) ☆

If you use a car to travel long distances during the vacation season, you should be sure to do a car inspection.

19. 주요(하다) ☆

The results of an investigation into the major causes of traffic accidents revealed that the most frequent was using a cell phone while driving.

20. 주의(하다) ☆

As it's easy for accidents to occur on days when it rains a lot, you should be cautious when driving.

21. 쫓다

When the criminal got in the car and fled, the police car chased behind in order to catch them.

22. 처하다

Yesterday afternoon, a citizen passing by rescued a man who nearly faced danger when he fell into the river.

23. 추락(하다)

The hiker who suffered an accident when they fell while hiking was rescued by helicopter.

24. 충돌(하다)

An accident occurred as the car and bus collided on the rainy road.

25. 취하다

Yesterday evening, a driver was driving while intoxicated and had a minor accident.

26. 탈출(하다)

The firefighter helped the people inside the burning building to escape.

27. 폭력

As the problem of school violence grows serious, voices that say we need to strengthen the punishment for juvenile crimes are growing.

28. 현장 ☆

The police are at the scene of the accident, investigating the cause of the accident.

29. 화재 ☆

In the winter when the air is dry, we must work hard to prevent fires like forest fires.

30. 흔들리다

The accidental explosion that occurred yesterday was so strong that nearby buildings shook.
