

01. 가득(하다) ☆

The swimming pool was full of people, maybe because the weather was so hot.

02. 감동적

It was so moving to go to the concert of the singer I like and hear her songs in person.

03. 공연 ☆

The music festival was an outdoor show this time, and since the atmosphere and the weather were good, it was a memorable show.

04. 관객 ☆

As soon as the show ended, lots of spectators stood and applauded.

05. 관람(하다) ☆

While looking at the paintings in an exhibition, you must be quiet.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's learn some vocabulary related to "관람 (seeing)."

- 관람료 admission: Refers to a fee paid in order to see a play, movie, sports game, work of art, etc.
- 관람객 audience or audience member: Someone who sees a play, movie, sports game, work of art, etc.

06. 규모

The size of the arena was large, so many spectators could enjoy the performance.

07. 몰리다

People suddenly flocked to get a look at the singer and an accident nearly occurred.

08. 무대

At the end of the play I saw yesterday, they had the audience come up on stage and we sang together.

09. 뮤지컬 ☆

The charm of musicals is that you can see singing and dancing together.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's review types of "공연 (performances)."

- 뮤지컬 Musical: A contemporary musical theater performance in which the performers sing, dance, and act
- 오페라 Opera: A type of musical theater performance that originated in the 16th century, in which most of the dialogue is sung
- 클래식 연주회 Classical Music Concert: A performance of classical music played with various instruments
- 연극 Play: Performers act on a stage that is close to the audience.
- 무용 Dance: A performance expressed by moving one's body in time to music

10. 볼거리

There's an exhibition of photos and paintings at the spring flower festival this time, so there are lots of things to see.

11. 색다르다

At the show I saw yesterday, the actors acted on a stage that had nothing on it, and it was unusual to see.

12. 수상(하다)

The show that won "Musical of the Year" in America can be seen in Korea next month.

13. 시상(하다)

The awards at the film festival are divided into 13 categories, including actors, directors, music, etc.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's review vocabulary words related to "상 (prizes)."

- 수상: Means the act of receiving a prize.
e.g. 김 과장은 올해의 직원 상을 수상했다. Manager Kim won the Employee of the Year award.
- 시상: Means the act of giving a prize.
e.g. 사장님은 김 과장에게 올해의 직원 상을 시상했다. The boss awarded Manager Kim the Employee of the Year award.

14. 역할 ☆

Actor Kim Gyuwon plays the role of a police officer in this film.

15. 연기(하다)

In a musical, several actors play the same part, and you can see a different kind of acting depending on the actor.

16. 연출(하다) ☆

They say that for this drama, the famous drama writer Kim Taeoh was in charge of everything including production.

17. 열광(하다)

As soon as the idol group BTS got up on stage, the fans began to go wild.

18. 열기

If you go to see a concert in person, you can feel the high excitement of the crowd.

19. 열리다

To celebrate the new year, a large festival was opened to the public at Gwanghwamun on January 1st.

20. 좌석

At a concert or musical performance, a front seat is more expensive than a back seat.

21. 주목(하다) ☆

Kim Gyuwon is the top movie actor right now, but 5 years ago, he hadn't received much attention.

22. 주인공

The movie is a story about the main character's ordinary daily life.

23. 진행(하다) ☆

The festival will go on for two days over the weekend.

24. 채우다

During the performance, the singer thanked the crowd who had completely filled the seats.

25. 청중

This program is about an audience that has seen performances by singers choosing the best performance.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's review similar vocabulary words.

- 관객: Mainly indicates people who are watching a sports match or various types of performances.

e.g. 야구 경기가 끝나고 관객들은 자기 자리의 쓰레기를 스스로 치웠다. The baseball game ended and the spectators cleaned up the trash around their own seats.

- 청중: Indicates people who have gathered to listen to a lecture or concert, so it isn't used with sports matches.

e.g. 김 박사의 강연을 들은 청중 중에 한 명이 질문을 했다. One of the audience members who was listening to Dr. Kim's lecture asked a question.

26. 촬영(하다)

A lot of people come here because it's one of the places where a popular drama was filmed.

27. 축제

An international food culture festival is held at my school in September.

28. 치르다

Busan announced that it had successfully held the International Film Festival this year as well.

29. 팬

As soon as the concert started, the fans went wild, shouting out loud.

BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE ▲

Let's learn about fan culture in Korea.

As the BTS fan club "ARMY" became popular, Korean fandom culture began to attract attention. Some of the fans who want to be active in these fandoms join "fan clubs."

When you become a member of a fan club, you have more chances of going to events like a star's performance or fan meeting. Lately, fans do more than just simply go and cheer at a performance by a star they like; they do various other activities. They cheer on celebrities they like by posting ads for them in buses or subway stations frequented by many people, and they also make donations or do volunteer work for people in difficult situations in the name of their favorite celebrity.

30. 풍성하다

Plenty of attractions have been prepared for this festival, like musicals, concerts, etc.

31. 행사 ☆

The marathon event was canceled because of the rain.