

01. 가치 ☆

This piece of pottery was made by a famous artist, and today, its value is said to be over 10 billion won.

02. 간소하다

These days, more and more people are holding simple weddings that are unlike traditional weddings.

03. 고유(하다) ☆

At the World Cultures Festival, representatives from each country wore the indigenous costume of their people.

04. 귀하다

In the Goryeo Dynasty, guksu noodles, which are cheap and common now, were a rare food that was only eaten on special days.

05. 금

Many people are worried because there is a crack in the stone tower that is a piece of cultural heritage from the Silla Dynasty.

06. 기원(하다)

In Korea, lucky bags are given as gifts on Seollal to wish for good fortune.

07. 독창적 ☆

Hangeul is a creative alphabet that was made by looking at the shapes of the sky, the earth, and people.

08. 문화권

Korea, China, and Japan are part of a cultural sphere that uses Chinese characters.

09. 문화재

Hwaseong Fortress in Suwon is a piece of cultural heritage that was made in the Joseon Dynasty with creative technology.

BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE ▲

Items that are recognized as having cultural or historical value are called “문화재 (cultural heritage).” There are many different kinds of cultural heritage.

- 유형 문화재 tangible cultural heritage: Cultural heritage with tangible forms, such as buildings, books, paintings, and works of art.
- 무형 문화재 intangible cultural heritage: Cultural heritage without tangible forms, such as pansori (Korean narrative singing), dance, performances, and games.
- 세계 문화유산 World Heritage: Among all cultural heritage, items that are considered to have global value are maintained and protected by UNESCO

10. 보존(하다) ☆

Cultural assets with high historical value must be preserved well.

11. 복원(하다)

Gyeongbokgung Palace was once burnt down in the mid Joseon Dynasty, but it was successfully restored to its current appearance.

12. 본질

The essence of a traditional memorial service is to have respect for your ancestors in your heart.

13. 사라지다 ☆

As traditional weddings have come to be performed less, a lot of traditional wedding culture has disappeared.

14. 사상

In the Silla Dynasty, Buddhist thought was considered important.

15. 예

Ordinarily, you greet someone by lowering your head, but on special days like holidays, you show courtesy by doing a deep bow.

16. 우수(하다)

Hangeul is an excellent letter system that uses simple shapes to express various sounds.

17. 원래 ☆

In order to preserve the original appearance of the house where Shinsaimdang lived, it was designated a national treasure and is managed by the government.

18. 유교

Confucianism is a field of study that considers etiquette to be very important, and has had a lot of influence on Korean people's thinking.

BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE ▲

During the Joseon Dynasty, Confucianism was regarded as important, and it was taught that people should always behave correctly, be filial to their parents, and love their country. Additionally, there was a great emphasis on maintaining interpersonal order and etiquette. Confucian culture that remains in Korea today includes holding a memorial service for ancestors on holidays, giving up your seat on the bus or subway to your elders, using honorific speech and bowing when greeting elders, etc.

19. 유래(하다)

This local festival originated from a feast celebrating the king's birthday in the Silla Dynasty.

20. 자부심

Korean people have a strong sense of pride in the scientific alphabet Hangeul.

21. 자손

The descendants of the old couple next door are all successful business people.

22. 작업(하다)

The work of restoring Namdaemun after it had burned down took 5 years.

23. 잔치

In the past in Korea, a very big party was held on a person's 60th birthday, which was enjoyed together with the neighbors as well.

24. 장식(하다)

When wearing hanbok, it looks even prettier if you wear a flower-shaped decoration in your hair.

25. 전통

Hangeul, hanbok, and kimchi are representative of traditional Korean culture.

26. 제사

There's a memorial service for my late grandmother and grandfather next week.

BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE ▲

Let's review Korean "제사" and "차례."

- 제사: e.g. 우리 집안은 일 년에 4번 제사를 지낸다. My family holds 4 memorial services (제사) each year.
- 차례: e.g. 설날과 추석날 아침에는 차례를 모신다. A memorial service (차례) is held on the mornings of Seollal and Chuseok.

제사 and 차례 are both traditional Korean culture in which you greet your late ancestors and elders. 제사 is usually held on the day that an elder passed away, and 차례 refers to a 제사 that's held in the morning on a Korean traditional holiday.

27. 중시(하다)

My grandmother considers tradition to be important, so she ordinarily wears a hanbok even in her daily life.

28. 지정(하다)

Seokguram Grotto and Bulguksa Temple were recognized as global cultural assets that must be preserved, and so they were designated as World Heritage Sites.

29. 창조(하다)

King Sejong created Hangeul, a writing system in which form and sound correspond with each other.

30. 풍습

Gathering as a family and holding ancestral rites is a custom on Korean holidays.

31. 훼손(하다)

There are cases where cultural assets are damaged by fire or weather.