

01. 간접

This book indirectly conveys the depressed feelings of modern people through the heart of a young girl.

02. 관점

Depending on your point of view, the main character of the novel can be a bad person or a good person.

03. 내면

This author is good at expressing the inner mind of the main character of the novel.

04. 담다 ☆

In this book, “birds” are imbued with the meaning of “freedom.”

EXAM TIP ▲

Ⅴ 담기다 be put into

e.g. 추억이 담긴 노래를 들으면 그 때 생각이 난다. When I hear a song filled with memories, it reminds me of that time.

05. 대표적 ☆

Mr. Kim Taeoh is a representative Korean novelist who even won a Nobel Prize in Literature.

06. 도서

At my school, once a year, they announce the books that the students have to read.

07. 독자 ☆

This book is in an interview format so that readers can read it in a interesting way.

08. 독특하다

This novel is about a unique boy who can use magic.

09. 드러내다

What this book emphasizes is that we should reveal our feelings to others and not hide them.

10. 등장(하다) ☆

The characters that appear in this book are all people who really exist.

11. 떠오르다 ☆

Reading this travel essay, the scenery from the destination comes to my mind.

12. 문학

The small neighborhood bookstore is a bookstore specializing in literature, which sells poems, novels, etc.

BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE ▲

Literature refers to works of art that express thoughts or feelings in words. Types of literature include poems, novels, plays, essays, and critiques. Novels are the type of literature that often appears on many exams, including the TOPIK exam.

13. 바탕 ☆

This novel is a book that was written based on something that really happened.

14. 비유(하다)

In novels or poems, there are a lot of instances where people are expressed through comparison to other things.

15. 수준 ☆

The level of the writing in this travel essay is so high that it's hard to believe it was written by a student.

16. 시

A poem is a short, figurative expression of what you feel.

17. 원고

I've been writing a novel for 10 years and finally sent the final manuscript to the publisher yesterday.

18. 원작

Popular novels are made into movies, but there are differences between the movies and the originals.

19. 일깨우다

By telling the story of people who gave their lives for their country, this novel awakens people's feelings of patriotism.

20. 작가 ☆

Mr. Kim Taeoh, who won the “Author of the Year” award for his first novel, is writing a second.

21. 작품 ☆

The novel is a remarkable work that touched many people.

EXAM TIP ▲

“작품” refers to anything created through artistic activity, and appears very frequently on Korean language tests under various topics.

- 예술 작품 Works of Art:
그림 Paintings, 조각 sculptures, 사진 photography, 무용 dance, 영화 films, 드라마 dramas, etc.
- 문학 작품 Works of Literature:
소설 novels, 시 poems, 수필 essays, etc.

22. 장르

Author Kim Taeoh is releasing various works without adhering to genres, such as poetry, novels, essays, etc.

23. 조화 ☆

This book is a novel that achieves a good balance of history and inference.

24. 주제

For my writing homework, I wrote a passage on the subject of studying abroad.

25. 출판(하다)

Author Kim Taeoh collected pieces he wrote in his younger days and published them in a book.

26. 펴내다

Reporter Kim Jimin published a book of passages he wrote while working as a reporter at a broadcasting station.

27. 표현(하다) ☆

The author did a good job expressing the feelings of people who have fallen in love.

28. 해석(하다)

The writer made it so that readers could freely interpret the ending.

29. 형식 ☆

Among literary genres, essays are writing that is expressed in a free form.

30. 흐름

What's fun about this book is that you understand the feelings of the characters that change with the flow of time.

31. 흥미진진하다

The story of the main character's adventures was so intriguing that I read the whole book in just one day.