

01. 강연(하다)

His lectures are so popular that they were introduced on a TV program.

02. 강의(하다)

After listening to the history lecture, I felt proud about Korean culture.

03. 개념

Math concepts that are difficult for children to understand can be easily learned through comics.

04. 거두다

To achieve a good score on the test, considerable effort and preparation are required.

05. 개발(하다)

Teachers should make efforts to discover students' talents and develop them.

06. 과제

To prepare the group assignment, we gathered at school over the weekend.

07. 논리 ☆

In order to debate well, you must listen well to your opponents words and persuade them logically.

08. 박사

He's famous for having a PhD in education, as well as being a famous admissions exam expert.

09. 반복(하다) ☆

I was studying when I re-read a section that was difficult to understand several times, and then I came to understand it.

10. 발표(하다) ☆

I have an introverted personality, so classes where I have to give a presentation, speaking in front of other people, are difficult.

11. 수강

At my school, you have to take at least 15 required subject courses to be able to graduate.

12. 습득(하다)

In the days when there was no internet, we had no choice but to acquire knowledge through books.

13. 실습(하다)

My older sister, who's in her fourth year of nursing school, has to go to the hospital for practical training to be able to graduate.

EXAM TIP ▲

Aff -생: Attaches after a noun to indicate the meaning of "student."

e.g. 실습생 trainee/intern, 연구생 research student

14. 어휘

Because Korean has a lot of Chinese character words, studying Chinese character words improves your vocabulary skills.

15. 연구(하다) ☆

At college, professors study academics and give lectures.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's learn some vocabulary related to "연구 (research)."

- 연구소 Research facility: An institution specializing in research
- 연구원 Researcher: A person engaging in research
- 연구진 Research team: A group of experts gathered to do research

16. 용어

Specialized textbooks have a lot of technical terminology or vocabulary so they're hard to understand.

17. 의욕

If you don't take enough time to rest when you study, your drive decreases and it becomes difficult to study for a long time.

18. 의지 ☆

My friend Mika has a strong will to go to a good college so he studies hard.

19. 익히다

Through the effects of the Korean Wave, the number of international students who want to study Korean language and culture is increasing.

20. 입시

Before the the college entrance exam, students even forget about their vacation and come to school to study.

BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE ▲

In Korea, the “College Scholastic Ability Test (대학수학능력시험)” is held in order to select the students who will attend college. This test is called “수능” for short and students take it in November of each year.

21. 재능

Through club activities, students can grow their dreams and utilize their talents.

22. 전공(하다)

I’m majoring in art education in college, and am teaching art at a school as well.

23. 조기

Many people think that early foreign language education is needed because the younger you are, the quicker you can acquire a foreign language.

24. 주입(하다)

Education that just injects knowledge and doesn’t give students a chance to think for themselves isn’t good.

25. 지식 ☆

Ordinarily I like to gain varied knowledge by reading books.

26. 집중(하다) ☆

It’s said that the more frequently you encounter TV, smartphones, or computers from a young age, the more your ability to concentrate decreases.

27. 참고(하다) ☆

While preparing for a presentation in a class for my major, I referred to various materials such as dissertations, the news, the dictionary, etc.

28. 포기(하다) ☆

I couldn’t study at all because of my part-time job, so I decided to give up on the test this time.

29. 학습(하다)

Apps that allow people to learn English simply are drawing a lot of popularity from busy people in the modern day.

30. 학자

Different scholars of history have different opinions about when this custom first began.

31. 향상(하다)

Mika studied Korean hard and his Korean skills improved greatly as a result.