

01. 강점

A strength of my personality is that I have excellent skills in communicating with others.

02. 계기 ☆

Through the opportunity of club activities, I came to find a job that suits me.

03. 고려(하다) ☆

When selecting a major, you must consider the job that you'll have in the future.

04. 구체적 ☆

When writing a self-introduction, you should present your experience in detail.

05. 기대(하다) ☆

The expectations of parents who want their child to go to a good school are burdensome.

06. 기준 ☆

Our school selects scholarship students based on strict criteria.

07. 끼

From the time he was young, singer Park Jeongwu was often told that he was very talented in singing and dancing.

08. 달성(하다)

In order to achieve the score I wanted on the test, I stayed up all night studying at the library.

09. 마감(하다)

College entrance exam takers should find out the deadline for applications at the school they're preparing for in advance.

10. 명단

Hankuk University revealed the list of incoming students on the school's homepage.

11. 모집(하다)

Schools make efforts to recruit students with exceptional skills.

12. 목표

My goal is to become an athlete on the national team.

13. 미래 ☆

It's better to live earnestly in the present rather than worrying too much about the future.

14. 선발(하다)

My older sister was selected at school as a student with exceptional grades and received a scholarship.

15. 선호(하다)

The major that students prefer differs depending on the era.

EXAM TIP ▲

“선호도 (preference)” refers to the degree to which you like something. It's usually used often in “선호도를 조사하다 (to research/survey preferences)”, “선호도가 높다/낮다 (to have a high/low level of preference),” etc.

16. 역량

At my school, we can cultivate our professional abilities not only through courses in our major but also through work experience.

17. 원서

I submitted an application for admission to the school I wanted, but my grades were bad so I failed.

18. 유형

In order to get a good score on a test, you need to know the types of questions perfectly.

19. 이루다 ☆

I entered an arts high school in order to achieve my dream of becoming a designer.

20. 자신(하다) ☆

I'm not good at studying, but I have confidence in sports.

21. 장래

You have to consider your prospects when choosing a major.

22. 적성

When choosing a major, you have to consider your aptitude and interests.

23. 접수(하다)

College entrance applications can be received both in person or through the internet.

24. 조언(하다)

The advice of older students who experienced the college entrance exam first is a big help to younger students.

25. 진로

Deciding on a career path is an important choice related to students' futures.

26. 진학(하다)

In order to accumulate expert knowledge of Korean history, I decided to enter graduate school.

27. 특성

The characteristics of each major and careers after graduation were introduced to the students who entered the college.

28. 파악(하다)

In order to take a test well, you need to do well figuring out the types of questions.

29. 합격(하다)

My older sister was accepted into college with her good grades.

30. 향하다

He shed tears as he thought about the time he'd spent working toward his dream of becoming a national athlete.

31. 확실하다

Recently the number of teens concerned about an uncertain future, problems entering college, etc. is increasing.
