

01. 각자

On Sundays, my family each orders the food they want to eat for delivery.

02. 갈등

I want to become a singer but my parents don't like that, so there's conflict.

03. 고난

My mother is very sick and my father passed away suddenly in an accident, so I'm suffering from hardship.

04. 공감(하다) ☆

This movie discusses familial love, so anyone can relate to it.

05. 남

Taking others' belongings is wrong.

06. 누리다

Korean idol singers are enjoying the highest popularity around the world.

EXAM TIP ▲

Memorize these words that are often used together.

- 행복 happiness
 - 자유 freedom
 - 인기 popularity
 - 삶 life
- + 을/를 누리다 to enjoy

07. 대접(하다)

I served fruit to the guests who came to my home.

08. 대하다

My friend Minsu's father plays soccer with me and treats me like a son.

09. 맺다 ☆

People live by forming relationships with many people at school and at work.

10. 본능

Everyone has the instinct to protect themselves.

11. 본인

You can't make an account at the bank without going there yourself.

12. 불행(하다)

When I failed the college entrance exam and then even broke up with my girlfriend, I felt that I was unfortunate.

13. 사망

The news of the famous actor's death in a traffic accident shocked many people.

14. 살아가다

We have to live our lives by working hard each day at the things we need to do.

15. 삶 ☆

This move makes you think about the life and death of human beings.

EXAM TIP ▲

Take a look at some words similar to “삶” that appear frequently on exams.

- 삶: The life a person leads
- 목숨: The condition of breathing and being alive

e.g. 그 때 사고로 목숨을 잃었다면 지금 이렇게 행복한 삶을 살 수 없었을 것이다. If I'd lost my life in the accident back then, I wouldn't have been able to live such a happy life now.

16. 상대 ☆

When having a conversation, you should look the other person in the eyes and speak.

17. 소통(하다) ☆

I studied Korean hard, so I can communicate with Korean people in Korean.

EXAM TIP ▲

“의사소통 (communication)” is the exchange of ideas or meanings.

18. 오해(하다)

I misunderstood my friend, thinking that she disliked me when she first saw me because her expression was unpleasant.

19. 이웃

On my way to school, I met my neighbor who lives next door and greeted them.

BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE ▲

Let's learn about what Korean people think about “neighbor” culture.

In Korean, there's a term called “이웃사촌” (lit. “neighbor cousin”). It means that you see your neighbor more frequently and are closer to them than to your family or relatives. In the past, Korean people used to greet their neighbors this frequently and were close with them, but today, there are fewer instances in which people communicate or become friendly with their neighbors.

20. 인간 ☆

The thing about humans that is most different from animals is that they can use writing.

EXAM TIP ▲

Aff -성: Attaches to a noun and means “nature” or “characteristic.”

e.g. 인간성 human nature, 적극성 initiative, 사교성 sociability

21. 인물 ☆

According to a survey, Koreans' favorite figure is King Sejong.

EXAM TIP ▲

The words “인간” and “인물” that frequently appear on exams are similar but have a difference in meaning.

• 인간: A person.

e.g. 학교나 회사에서 인간관계 때문에 힘들어 하는 사람들이 많다. There many people who have a difficult time at school or work because of relationships between people.

• 인물: A person with extraordinary talent

e.g. 우리 학교는 대통령, 운동선수, 가수 등 많은 인물을 배출했다. My school has produced many famous figures including presidents, athletes, singers, and more.

22. 인생 ☆

This movie is a story about the life of a woman from her youth up until she becomes an old woman.

23. 정

My grandmother is so kind, so when she makes delicious food, she always shares it with the neighbors.

24. 존재(하다) ☆

Not only humans but also various animals, flowers, trees, etc. exist on the Earth on which we live.

25. 친근하다

My teacher has a lot of interest in the students and is fun, so things feel friendly.

EXAM TIP ▲

Aff -감: Attaches after a noun and means “feeling.”

e.g. 친근감 friendliness, 존재감 presence, 책임감 responsibility

26. 타인

If you see someone secretly filming a stranger's face or body on the subway, you need to report it to the police.

27. 통하다

When I first started out living as an international student in Korea, it was difficult because I couldn't communicate.

28. 평생

Marriage is a promise to love one person for your whole life.

29. 형성(하다)

In order to form a good habit, you have to keep working at it for at least 3 weeks.

30. 환영(하다)

When I arrived at the airport, my friends had come to meet me and welcomed me.