

01. 감격스럽다

Seeing my child standing at her graduation ceremony, I felt moved because she looked all grown up.

02. 감정 ☆

When my friend gets angry, his emotions all show on his face.

03. 걱정스럽다

I'm worried that the trip planned for tomorrow will be canceled because of the heavy rain.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's review vocabulary related to "걱정."

- 걱정거리: (N) something that causes worry.
e.g. 요즘 나의 가장 큰 걱정거리는 시험이다. My biggest cause of worry these days is the exam.
- 걱정하다: The one who "worries(걱정하다)" (usually someone else, not "me.") + _____을/를 걱정하다
e.g. 부모님은 유학 간 자식을 걱정한다. Parents worry about their child who has gone to study abroad.
- 걱정되다: The one who "worries(걱정하다)" (usually "me") + _____이/가 걱정되다/걱정스럽다
e.g. 나는 부모님의 건강이 걱정된다. I'm concerned about my parents' health.

04. 겁

I felt afraid because I watched a scary movie and walked home alone down a dark street at night.

05. 곤란(하다)

Actor Kim Gyuwon stood up from his seat, saying he was struggling to answer the reporters' continuous questions.

06. 괘씸하다

The grandfather got angry, saying that his son, who hadn't contacted him in several months, was disgraceful.

07. 괴롭다

I'm sick but I have to finish my homework by today so I'm really suffering.

08. 난처하다

When two of my close friends fought with each other and asked me who was more wrong, I felt really awkward.

09. 낯설다

In the new semester, the teacher and my classmates were all unfamiliar.

EXAM TIP ▲

- 낯을 가리다: Means that one dislikes or finds it difficult to deal with strangers.
e.g. 형은 처음 만난 사람들과도 빨리 친해지지만 나는 낯을 가리는 성격이라서 친해지기 어렵다. My older brother quickly gets close with people he's meeting for the first time, but I have a shy personality so it's difficult for me to get close to them.

10. 놀랍다

The five-year-old child's drawing skills were so amazing that everyone clapped.

11. 담담하다

The author Kim Taeoh spoke calmly and honestly about the difficult life he had lived.

12. 당황스럽다

I came to the airport to get on a plane but my passport wasn't in my bag so I was very flustered.

13. 두렵다

The road home is so dark and I'm worried something bad might happen so I'm scared to go alone.

14. 들뜨다

People who went on outings in the first sunny weather in a long time couldn't hide their excited feelings.

15. 만족(하다)

My monthly salary is low, but I enjoy working so I'm satisfied with my job right now.

EXAM TIP ▲

Vocabulary words related to “만족” appear very frequently on exams.

- 만족도: The degree to which satisfaction is felt, often used together with “높다,” “낮다,” and “조사.”
e.g. 태양회사는 고객 만족도 조사에서 1위를 차지했다.
Taeyang Company came first in the customer satisfaction survey.
- 만족감: A feeling of satisfaction, often used together with “느끼다.”
e.g. 고객들은 좋은 서비스를 받으면 만족감을 느낀다.
Customers feel a sense of satisfaction when they receive good service.
- 만족해 하다: Used when seeing another person feel satisfied and talking about it.
e.g. 내가 요리한 음식을 손님이 만족해 하며 맛있게 드실 때 기분이 좋다. It feels good when customers are satisfied with the food I cooked and enjoy eating it.

16. 번거롭다

When you're tired, even eating a simple breakfast is inconvenient.

17. 부담감

Every time I take a test at school, the pressure of having to stay in first place is big.

18. 분노(하다)

When my boyfriend said he liked my best friend, I felt the most anger I'd felt in my whole life.

19. 불만

I ordered coffee but it's been over 20 minutes and it hasn't arrived, so I can't help but have complaints.

20. 서운하다

I was hurt by my husband, who said he forgot our wedding anniversary because he was busy.

21. 속상하다

When I thought of my parents working, not even able to eat lunch, I felt so upset that I cried.

22. 신기하다

It was so amazing that the teacher memorized all the classmates' names in just one hour.

23. 실망(하다)

My close friend lied to me so I was really disappointed in him.

24. 아쉽다

I came on a trip to Korea but it was a shame that I couldn't see Gwanghwamun because it was under construction.

25. 안타깝다

Seeing the slang that's used on the internet these days, it's regrettable that Hangeul isn't used correctly.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's review words that express a sense of frustration.

- 아쉽다: Used to express a feeling of wanting to spend more time with something.
e.g. 친구가 고향에 돌아가서 아쉬워요. I feel sorry that my friend went back to her hometown.
- 안타깝다: Used when feeling frustrated because there isn't enough, or any, of something that is necessary.
e.g. 많은 학생들이 자신이 하고 싶은 일이 무엇인지 모르겠다고 할 때 너무 안타깝다. It's such a shame when so many students say that they don't know what they want to do in their lives.

26. 억울하다

When I was young, it felt so unfair that if my younger sibling did something wrong, I also got scolded too.

27. 외로움

I don't have an older sister or brother so I grew up feeling loneliness.

28. 우울(하다)

I get depressed easily on rainy or cloudy days.

29. 자랑스럽다

I'm so proud of my son who came in first place in the Korean speaking competition.

EXAM TIP ▲

You can make nouns into adjectives using “-스럽다.” Let’s review the words we’ve learned so far.

- 자랑스럽다

e.g. 열심히 노력해서 시험에서 1등을 한 나 자신이 자랑스럽다.
I’m so proud of myself for trying hard and coming in first place on the exam.

- 걱정스럽다

e.g. 친구가 매일 늦게까지 일만해서 건강이 나빠질까 봐 걱정스럽다. My friend works until late every day, so I’m worried her health will decline.

- 당황스럽다

e.g. 엄마한테 공부한다고 거짓말했는데 영화관에서 엄마를 만나서 당황스러웠다. I lied to my mother that I was studying but ran into her at the movie theater and was embarrassed.

- 후회스럽다

e.g. 아침에 엄마에게 화를 낸 것이 후회스럽다. I regret getting angry at my mother this morning.

- 사랑스럽다

e.g. 아기가 나를 볼 때마다 예쁘게 웃어서 너무 사랑스러웠다.
The baby gave me a beautiful smile every time he saw me, so it was really lovely.

30. 좌절(하다)

The basketball player felt discouraged at hearing suddenly that he would need knee surgery.

31. 조금하다

I ordered a coffee and I’m waiting, but I only have 5 minutes left until class so I feel impatient.

32. 진심

I congratulated my best friend sincerely on his marriage.

33. 허전하다

After my roommate whom I spent 2 years with went back to her hometown, my heart feels so empty.

34. 후회(하다)

The thing I regret most in my life so far is that I couldn’t contact the person I liked because I was too shy.