

01. 가입(하다) ☆

I think that when I go to college, I'll join a soccer club to exercise and make friends.

02. 경비

I didn't have enough travel funds, so I decided to walk short distances and take the bus or subway instead of taxis.

EXAM TIP ▲

Aff -비: Attaches after a noun and indicates the "cost" of or "money" required to do something.

e.g. 생활비 living expenses, 가입비 membership fees, 숙박비 accommodation expenses, 활동비 activity fees

03. 관심사

The greatest interests of people who live busy daily lives are leisure activities like gaming, shopping, and movies.

04. 광경

Seoul is a tourist destination where you can see scenes of busy and beautiful city life.

05. 교외

In order to feel the warm spring weather, I took a drive to the suburbs.

06. 동아리

The movie club I joined meets once a week and we watch movies together and share discussions.

07. 떠나다

The airport is crowded with people leaving on vacation for the holidays.

08. 무작정

My older brother, who's a photographer, often takes just a camera and leaves on an aimless trip without plans.

09. 묵다

These days, people reserve hotels where they can stay on vacation using lodging apps.

10. 벗어나다 ☆

Lately, sports that people can enjoy outside, free from their stuffy houses, are popular.

11. 변경(하다)

Because international travel has too many expenses, I changed my plans to domestic travel.

12. 북적이다

On the last holiday in October, the park was crowded with people who came to enjoy the beautiful fall foliage.

13. 불어넣다

Yoga doesn't just make your body healthy, it instills some vitality in your daily life.

14. 소소하다

In order to remember my simple daily life for a long time, I decided to take pictures and upload them to social media.

15. 수집(하다)

Collecting toys is my hobby, so every weekend I go to the stationery store.

16. 숙박

As people flock to leave on trips, it's very difficult to reserve accommodations not only on the weekends but also during the week.

17. 알아보다 ☆

These days, you can check the time of your train on the internet so there's no need to go to the station in person.

18. 야외

As the weather gets warmer, I spend one of the two days of the weekend doing some outdoor activity like riding my bike or hiking.

19. 여가

I want to escape my daily life and feel the freedom of life doing leisure activities with my family.

20. 여유

There are many office workers who are so busy that they don't have the freedom to enjoy their hobbies and leisure time.

21. 일상 ☆

In order to make my body healthier and release the stress from my daily life, I started exercising.

22. 일정

On a trip with several people, it's very difficult to match each person's schedule.

23. 자유롭게 ☆

On this trip, I just want to enjoy traveling freely without any schedule.

24. 재충전(하다)

Vacation is a time when students who are tired from their school life can recharge their bodies and minds.

25. 짜다

I made plans in advance for how I'll spend this summer vacation.

26. 취향

Lately, rather than famous tourist destinations, trips to places that suit one's own taste are popular.

27. 캠핑

Over this vacation, I want to relax while camping on a quiet mountain.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's look at some vocabulary related to camping.

- 캠핑장 Campground: An outdoor area with facilities for camping
- 캠핑카 Camping car: A vehicle designed so that you can cook and sleep while traveling

28. 해소(하다)

I usually relieve stress through hobbies like watching movies, hiking, etc.

29. 활동(하다) ☆

In his college days, actor Kim Gyuwon was active in a theater club.

30. 활력

Rest and leisure time can bring energy to a busy and difficult daily life.

31. 휴게소

On the weekend, the airport and highway rest stops were busy with people leaving on trips.

EXAM TIP ▲

[Aff] -소: When added to a noun, indicates a place where something is done.

- 휴게소: A place where you rest briefly
- 매표소: A place that sells tickets
- 사무소: A place where you work

32. 휴식

When you're working and get tired, it's good to go out and take a break, even if only for a moment.
