

01. 건설(하다)

They say there are plans to construct a subway station in the area around the house where I'm living now.

02. 건축(하다)

A world-famous architect built this hotel.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's look at some vocabulary words related to "건축 (architecture)."

- 건축물 Building: Any structure built on land
- 건축가 Architect: A person with specialized knowledge or skills in architecture
- 재건축 Reconstruction: Tearing down an existing building and putting up a new one

03. 공간 ☆

My apartment complex is inconvenient because there are few parking spaces.

04. 공사(하다) ☆

Surprised by a loud noise, I opened the window to see they were doing construction on the road outside.

EXAM TIP ▲

[Aff] -장: Attached following a noun to indicate the meaning of "place."

- 공사장: A place where construction is done
- 운동장: A place to exercise

05. 구멍

In order to hang a shelf, I drilled a hole in the wall.

06. 꾸미다

At Christmas, so that I could to invite my friends over, I decorated the house prettily and prepared food.

07. 낡다

While moving house, I decided to throw away worn-out furniture and broken items.

08. 내부

The house was old, so I repaired everything inside, like the kitchen, bathroom, etc.

09. 달다

In the winter, if you hang thick curtains, the room temperature rises.

10. 도구

Over the weekend, I took out the soap and cleaning equipment and swept up and cleaned the whole house.

11. 돌

In the past, people stacked up stones to build houses that could withstand strong winds.

12. 비우다

The landlord asked me to vacate the house by next month, so I'm looking into places to move to.

13. 새다

The roof is worn out so whenever it rains, rainwater leaks into the house.

14. 설계(하다)

Plans are for the design of this apartment to be completed within the year and for construction to begin next March.

15. 소음

I can't sleep because I hear the noise of construction from the buildings nearby every morning.

16. 소재 ☆

That person won a prize for their architecture using wood and earth as materials.

17. 수리(하다)

The toilet in the bathroom keeps breaking even though I repaired it several times.

18. 실내

In winter, outdoor activities decrease and indoor activities increase.

19. 안정 ☆

After leaving the city and living in the countryside, my mind has become calm and relaxed.

20. 외부

Traditional houses like hanok have bathrooms on the exterior of the building.

21. 용도

There's no separate living room in my house so we use one of the big rooms as a living room.

22. 자연 친화적

In order to build an environmentally friendly house, materials like wood, earth, and stone were used instead of concrete.

23. 전등

After changing the light to a new one, the once dark room became bright.

24. 주거(하다)

As residential spaces like apartments increase, so do schools and stores.

25. 주택

The number of people who want to escape crowded city life to build a house and live in the countryside has increased.

26. 지상

They say there are plans to build a high-rise apartment building near my house with 25 stories above ground.

27. 지저분하다

I was busy with work so I couldn't clean for a few days and now my room is messy.

28. 창고

I organized the things that I don't use at home and left them piled up in storage.

29. 틈

The new vacuum cleaner I bought can even clean the dust that has built up in the space under the bed and between the furniture.

30. 파다

People in the past built houses by digging in the ground, erecting pillars, and covering them with a roof.

31. 형태 ☆

The type of housing preferred by most people in cities is apartments.

32. 환기(하다)

By ventilating for 30 minutes in the morning and evening, you can release the bad air from inside your house.
