

01. 가능(하다) ☆

The Korean national team played steady games throughout the tournament, increasing their possibility of winning.

02. 감독

The coach made a disappointed face as he saw the players' continuous mistakes.

03. 개최(하다)

The Winter Olympics is an international winter multi-sports competition that is held every 4 years.

04. 경고(하다)

A yellow card means a warning in sports like soccer, rugby, etc.

05. 고생(하다)

Soccer fans sent messages of support to the players who were struggling through their training.

06. 관중

After finishing the match, the players greeted the spectators with a wave.

07. 교체(하다)

One player suffered a head injury during the game and was substituted out.

08. 국가대표

Members of the national team train for 4 years without rest for the Olympics.

09. 놓치다

Our national team ended up missing the championship in this competition by one point.

10. 대단하다

Park Geonwu is a player who is recognized for his incredible skill in winning 3 consecutive Olympic gold medals.

11. 대회 ☆

I participated in this marathon [competition] and won.

12. 도전(하다)

Our country's soccer team, which won last year's competition, is attempting to win this year's competition too.

13. 동작

The moves for this dance are simple and easy, so anyone can follow along.

14. 뛰어나다

Our team's players scored 3 goals in this soccer game, showing off their remarkable skills.

15. 만만하다

You shouldn't assume a young athlete will be easy to take on.

EXAM TIP ▲

“만만하지 않다” is often shortened to “만만치 않다.”

e.g. 실력이 만만하지 않다 = 실력이 만만치 않다

16. 매달리다 ☆

Ahead of the Olympics, the athletes are busy day and night with their training.

17. 부상

Player Park Geonwu, who suffered an injury to his finger during training, has become unable to participate in tomorrow's game.

EXAM TIP ▲

[Aff] -자: Attaches after a noun and has the meaning of “person.”

- 부상자: A person who is injured
- 참가자: A person who is participating

18. 빠지다 ☆

As more and more players were injured ahead of the Olympics, the coach fell into deep concern.

19. 상당하다

Korea, the winning team at the last competition, showed their considerable abilities right from the first half of the match.

20. 순간 ☆

Athletes need strong physical capabilities and instantaneous judgment.

21. 실력

In order to improve my soccer skills, I practice on the field every morning.

22. 심판

When a player received a warning from the referee, he expressed dissatisfaction as if he couldn't accept it.

23. 응원(하다)

The stadium was filled with the voices of the spectators cheering for the players.

EXAM TIP ▲

“응원가” (a “fight song” or “cheer song”) is a song that is sung to support the players during a game.

24. 이기다

Before the game, the coach said in an interview that they could beat the opposing team no matter who it was.

25. 이끌다

Player Park Geonwu led his team to victory with his remarkable performance.

26. 자세

Baseball player Park Geonwu threw the ball with perfect posture and received a big round of applause from the spectators.

27. 참가(하다)

More than 2,200 athletes from 18 countries around the world are scheduled to participate in the World Taekwondo Championship this time.

28. 체력

The coach substituted a different player in for one who had run out of stamina in the second half of the game.

29. 판단(하다) ☆

The coach decided that due to the players’ serious injuries, they could not play in the next game.

30. 판정(하다)

A player who committed a foul during the game is waiting for the referee’s decision.

31. 해설(하다)

A sports commentator explains complicated gameplay in an easy-to-understand way.

EXAM TIP ▲

Aff -가: Used after a noun, it means “a person who does something for a living” or “a person who specializes in something.”

e.g. 해설가 commentator, 건축가 architect, 음악가 musician

32. 활약(하다)

In his high school days, the coach of our national soccer team was an active soccer player.

33. 훈련(하다)

Despite the hot weather, the players began their physical training, sweating.