

01. 결제(하다)

These days in Korea, people often pay with cards in stores.

02. 경기

As the global economy got worse, owners running small shops or restaurants grew worried.

03. 경제 ☆

Since the economic situation isn't good these days, companies aren't hiring workers.

04. 경향 ☆

The worse the economy becomes, the better strong alcohol tends to sell.

05. 고객 ☆

Department store employees treat customers kindly.

06. 구매(하다) ☆

I bought a laptop online for a low price.

07. 금액

Using the internet, you can buy the same item at an affordable price.

08. 금융

Banks and card companies are representative financial services.

EXAM TIP ▲

“금융권 (the financial sector)” refers to the range of people who do work related to finance.

09. 대형

People prefer large marts because the parking is convenient and they can shop in a clean environment.

10. 매출 ☆

Our company's new product is attracting a lot of attention from consumers and sales are rising steadily.

11. 불황

Because of the global economic recession, an increasing number of people have lost their jobs.

12. 사로잡다

Recently, bread in the shape of cartoon characters has captured young children's hearts and is very popular.

13. 상업

This city is close to the ocean, so commerce developed here a long time ago.

14. 소득

My friend started a business when she was a college student and now her income is really high.

15. 손실

The shop couldn't open because of the typhoon, and the economic loss for the boss is large.

16. 수익 ☆

In business, it isn't easy to earn high profits.

17. 수입(하다)

Korea imports and uses petroleum from other countries.

18. 시장 ☆

There's a seafood market in my neighborhood so I can buy and eat fresh fish any time.

19. 요인 ☆

In sales of fans and air conditioners, there's a large seasonal factor.

20. 운영(하다) ☆

My friend is a business owner who runs a small coffee shop in front of a college.

21. 유통(하다)

The process from the creation of a product in a factory through its meeting the consumer is called distribution.

22. 이익

This company thinks of customer satisfaction before company interests.

23. 자본

He realized that if you want to start a business, you need capital first, and he decided to make some money.

24. 재래시장

My mother prefers going to big marts rather than traditional markets because the parking is convenient.

25. 저렴하다

If the distribution process is simple, consumers can buy items more affordably.

26. 전망(하다)

Economic experts positively predicted that the economy would recover next year.

27. 책정(하다)

People were dissatisfied that the price of the newly released smartphone was set too high.

28. 추구(하다)

At its base, every company seeks profits.

29. 출시(하다)

Our company is making advertisements before the release of our new product.

30. 투자(하다)

The office is releasing a new product and invested a lot into marketing fees.

31. 판매(하다)

Because this bakery only sells bread made that same day, it's fresh and delicious.

32. 할인(하다)

The side dishes shop sells its side dishes at discounted prices after 7 PM.
