

01. 가공(하다) ☆

Things like cheese or butter are made by processing milk.

02. 가동(하다)

Because of the typhoon, the factory's operation stopped and all the employees went home.

03. 거래(하다)

These days, more people are trading used items, such as clothes or children's toys, on the internet.

EXAM TIP ▲

“거래처 (client)” refers to a person, company, or place that continuously does business with money or goods.

04. 기계

If you go to a car factory, a lot of the work is done by machines instead of by people.

05. 기술 ☆

The presentation venue was packed with people who had gathered to learn about the new technology.

06. 노동

People who do labor to earn money for a living are called “laborers.”

07. 농민

In my neighborhood, they open a market once a week where you can trade directly with farmers.

08. 대량

With the development of machines, it became possible to mass-produce products.

09. 목재 ☆

This company's furniture is expensive because it's made of good lumber.

10. 발전(하다) ☆

Korea achieved rapid economic development through the earnest work of its people.

11. 부품

Many parts are needed in order to produce a single car.

12. 분야 ☆

In order to overcome the global recession, experts in the field of economics decided to gather for a meeting.

13. 산업 ☆

As golf is popular these days, golf-related industry, which sells golf apparel and equipment, is receiving attention.

EXAM TIP ▲

Let's review types of “산업 (industry)” that frequently appear on exams.

• 농업 Agriculture

e.g. 이 곳은 전통적인 농업 지역으로 좋은 품질의 쌀을 생산하고 있다.

This is a traditional agricultural area that produces good-quality rice.

• 상업 Commerce

e.g. 옛날에는 바다 근처의 도시들이 사람들이 오고 가는 것이

편해서 상업이 발달했다. In the past, travel of people to and from cities near the ocean was convenient, and so commerce developed there.

• 서비스업 Service Industry

e.g. 사회가 발전하고 사람들의 생활 수준이 올라가면서 여행과 같은 서비스업이 발달하게 됐다. As society developed and people's standard of living increased, the service industry for things like travel developed.

• 바이오산업 Bio-industry

e.g. 사람들의 수명이 길어지면서 건강이나 약을 개발하는 바이오 산업이 주목 받고 있다. As people's life spans increase, bio-industry, which develops medicine and health products, is receiving attention.

An industry is a sector of business that produces goods or services as an economic activity. In addition to the 4 fields above are the “금융업 (financial industry),” “운수업 (transportation industry),” etc.

14. 생산(하다) ☆

As more people buy large vehicles for camping, the production of large vehicles is increasing.

15. 세부 ☆

Details like production and distribution methods for products are included in the report.

16. 양

As prices increased, more and more restaurants reduced portions instead of raising prices.

17. 업체

It's good to carefully compare various travel companies and then make a choice.

18. 여건

A lot of people are interested in Company A, which creates good working conditions for its employees.

19. 원동력

Advanced technical skills are the driving force behind Korea's economic growth.

20. 원천

This company created the source technology to make smartphones smaller.

21. 자동

Maybe because it was hungry, the dog stayed sitting in front of the machine that automatically released food at a set time.

22. 작동(하다)

The machines in the factory aren't operating right now, so products can't be made.

23. 제품 ☆

They say that during the discount event at the department store, if you buy any product, they'll give you a free cup of coffee.

24. 조작(하다)

It's simple and easy to work this game console, so it's popular with a lot of people.

25. 중심 ☆

This company grew with electronic products at the center of its business.

26. 질

As a result of new technology, the quality of products has improved.

27. 혁신

When smartphones first came out, people said they were an innovation in design and technology.

28. 활성화

In order to vitalize traditional markets, the government created vouchers that can only be used at the markets.

29. 획기적

A machine was released that phenomenally decreases working time and is attracting people's interest.
