

01. 개선(하다) ☆

This panel discussion, attended by experts in various fields, is expected to deal with issues in government policy and ways to improve them.

02. 국정

As life became difficult due to rising prices, citizens' complaints about the president's management of national affairs increased.

03. 기관¹

The National Assembly is an institution where national assembly members who represent the people gather to make laws.

04. 기반

The Korean economy grew quickly upon a background of industries based on manpower.

05. 기존 ☆

Recently, as single-person households increase, reform is needed for existing policies centered on multi-person households.

06. 낮추다

College students demanded that the government lower tuition fees as promised.

07. 늘리다 ☆

The government made increasing jobs for the elderly its top priority and made plans to create jobs.

08. 대안

The expansion of workplace daycares is anticipated to become an alternative to solve the issue of childcare for dual-income families.

09. 방안 ☆

The government is reviewing measures to solve the problem of a lack of manpower in rural areas.

10. 보완(하다)

The government revealed that it would supplement economic policies that have been pointed out as problematic.

11. 부과(하다)

Taxes are imposed in order to provide the required funds to maintain and develop a nation.

12. 부합(하다)

As this novel coincides with social sentiment in these days when it's hard to find a job, it's attracting popularity from younger generations.

13. 사례 ☆

As the number of abandoned animals increased, the government revealed that they would refer to international cases and revise policy.

14. 사회 ☆

A multicultural society is a single society in which several races or national cultures coexist.

15. 세금 ☆

The state collects taxes from the people and uses them to run the country.

16. 신청(하다) ☆

Young adults who are preparing to get a job can apply for a youth subsidy provided by the government.

17. 예산 ☆

The national budget must be well planned and spent on things that are absolutely necessary for the people.

18. 완화(하다)

The government revealed that beginning this year, they will relax the strict hiring standards for civil servants.

19. 요청(하다) ☆

The organization of farmers requested that the government resolve the problem of falling vegetable prices.

20. 의도 ☆

Policy was implemented with the intention of reducing food waste, but the amount of waste did not decrease.

21. 절차

Anyone who is eligible for support can receive a government subsidy, but the registration process is often strict.

22. 정부 ☆

As the chief executive of the government, the president decides important state matters.

23. 정책 ☆

The people must actively present their opinions on government policy.

24. 주도(하다) ☆

In order to solve the issue of insufficient housing, government-led support must be expanded.

25. 지급(하다)

The government decided to provide rice to those in the lower income bracket who are having difficulties.

26. 지원(하다)² ☆

The government is supporting housing expenses in order to solve the housing problem for newlywed couples.

27. 추진(하다) ☆

The government has decided to push forward with the bicycle lane construction project in order to revitalize bicycle usage.

28. 펼치다

The government is unfolding various rural support policies in order to solve the issue of insufficient manpower in rural areas.

29. 합리

When conflict arises amongst the people, a rational solution should be found through conversation.

30. 혜택 ☆

Our village provides discount benefits at cultural facilities so that residents can easily encounter culture in their daily lives.

31. 확대(하다) ☆

The government has decided to dramatically expand the budget to support jobs for youths.

32. 확보(하다)

In order to establish a power plant, a budget must be secured.

33. 확정(하다)

Additional highway construction plans have been confirmed and construction is scheduled to begin next year.
